The annotated call sheet

- 1. Production. The film, the day of the shoot (Day 2 of 18), and who's in charge. Save the production office number.
- 2. Times. Crew call is when most people start. Shooting call is when the first shot should roll. Lunch is six hours after crew call. Sunrise and sunset limit every exterior.
- 3. Weather. Dress for it, and look for a rain plan in the notes.
- 4. Locations. Each set, basecamp and crew parking. Park where it says, not at set.
- 5. Nearest hospital. Know it before you need it.
- 6. Scenes. What's shooting, in order: scene number, set, D (day) or N (night), page count, and cast numbers. A company move means the whole unit relocates.
- 7. Cast. Each actor's number, character, status and times. Find an actor's scenes by their number.
- 8. Background. How many extras, their call, where they're held and what to wear.
- 9. Notes. What each department needs today, the rain plan and the radio channels.
- 10. Crew calls. Your department's call. It may be earlier than crew call.
- 11. Advance schedule. Tomorrow's scenes, call and weather, so you can plan tonight.

Codes

Cast status, from the AD's Day Out of Days: SW start work (first day) · W work · WF work finish (last day) · SWF start, work and finish the same day · H hold (paid, not working today).

Pages in eighths: a script page is eight eighths. 1 3/8 is one page and three eighths (eleven eighths). No scene counts as less than 1/8.
